HISTORY OF TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY

Texas Tech University was created by legislative action in 1923 and has the distinction of being the largest comprehensive higher education institution in the western two-thirds of the state of Texas. The university is the major institution of higher education in a region larger than 46 of the nation's 50 states and is the only campus in Texas that is home to a major university, law school and medical school.

Originally named Texas Technological College, the college opened in 1925 with six buildings and an enrollment of 914. Graduate instruction did not begin until 1927 within the school of Liberal Arts. A "Division of Graduate Studies" was established in 1935 and eventually became known as the Graduate School in 1954.

By action of the Texas State Legislature, Texas Technological College formally became Texas Tech University on September 1, 1969. At that time the schools of Agricultural Sciences, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education, Engineering and Home Economics also became known as "colleges." Architecture became a college in 1986. Two colleges changed their names in 1993 to reflect the broadening fields each serves: the College of Agricultural Sciences became the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources and the College of Home Economics became the College of Human Sciences. The Honors College was established in 1998, and the College of Visual and Performing Arts opened in 2002. Mass Communications became a college in 2004 and became the College of Media & Communication in 2013.

The Texas State Legislature authorized funds in 1965 for establishing the Texas Tech University School of Law, and the Law School's first dean was appointed in 1966. The first class of 72 students enrolled in 1967. The Law School was approved by the American Bar Association in 1970 and is fully accredited by the Supreme Court of Texas (1968) and the Association of American Law Schools (1969).

As a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, Texas Tech began competing in the Big 12 Conference in 1996 after a 35-year membership in the former Southwest Conference.

TEXAS TECH TRADITIONS

ARBOR DAY
When Texas Tech first started, most of the funds went towards the buildings, but the campus was lacking its landscape. Then, in 1937, President Bradford Knapp decided to dedicate one day every spring to beautify the campus. On the first day of this now annual tradition, 20,000 trees were planted. This Tech tradition still goes on today as student and teachers plant trees and beautify the campus on Arbor Day.

BANGIN' BERTHA (SADDLE TRAMP BELL)
Saddle Tramps carry Bangin Bertha, a bell on a trailer, to all home football games and homecoming events. Bertha was designed in 1959 by Saddle Tramp Joe Winegar, and was donated by the Santa Fe Railroad. Bangin' Bertha is considered a spirit-raiser and a big tradition at Texas Tech.

BLARNEY STONE
On St. Patrick's Day in 1939, Texas Tech University unveiled that they had discovered a piece of the Blarney Stone. According to the legend the stone was discovered by a group of petroleum engineers while they were on a field trip. After doing tests it was discovered that the stone was a piece of the original Blarney Stone. The stone now lies on a stand in front of the old Electrical Engineering Building. It is said that seniors that kiss the Blarney Stone upon graduation will receive the gift of eloquent speech.

CARILLON
In 1973, Ruth Baird Larabee made a donation to Texas Tech University to buy and install a carillon in memory of her parents. The Charles and Ruth Baird Memorial Carillon is located in the west tower of the administration building at the center of the Texas Tech campus. The beautiful music of the 36-bell instrument ring out over the campus during times of celebration and solemnity. Students, faculty, and staff, as well as visitors to the university, have enjoyed the music for 30 years. The carillon became one of Texas Tech's treasured traditions.

The carillon was refurbished and extended in 2005, adding additional bells to make 3 ½ octaves. The bourdon (the largest bell) weighs approximately 800 pounds, and the smallest, only about eight pounds. Twelve of the bells were cast by Whitechapel Bell Foundry in England, 24 were cast by the Paccard Foundry in France, and the newest bells, by Meek & Watson Foundry in Ohio. The estimated value of this collection of bells today is $250,000.

According to The Guild of Carillonneurs in North America, "A carillon is a musical instrument composed of at least 23 bells, arranged in chromatic sequence, so tuned as to produce concordant harmony when many bells are sounded together. It is played from a keyboard that allows expression through variation of touch."

Every year since its inception, the Carol of Lights has featured carillon music. Additionally, each year on the Fourth of July at 1:00 p.m., the carillon is played in conjunction with the ceremonial ringing of the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia. Summer Sunday evening concerts are another Tech tradition.

CAROL OF LIGHTS
To celebrate the holiday season, Texas Tech holds an annual event called the Carol of Lights. The event starts off with the Texas Tech University Combined Choirs performing selections of classic holiday songs at the Science Quadrangle. When the lighting ceremony commences, Students, as well as those who came for the show, stand in awe as over 25,000 red, white, and orange lights illuminate the 13 buildings surrounding memorial circle.

This tradition started in 1959 when Harold Hinn came up with the idea and provided the funds to cover the science quadrangle and the administration building with lights. Unfortunately students were away on Christmas break and did not see the display. The following year, the Residence Hall Association created the Christmas Sing, which is now known as the Carol of Lights. Today, the Carol of Lights is one of Texas Tech's favorite traditions.

DOUBLE T BENCH
Located in the courtyard behind the Administration Building, this special bench was given by the seniors of the class of 1931. It was an announced tradition that no freshmen were allowed to sit on it.

DOUBLE T SADDLE MONUMENT
Before the football team runs onto the field, they touch the sculpture of a saddle. The saddle was dedicated by the Saddle Tramps to Double T, one of the many Masked Rider Horses that served proudly over the years.

DOUBLE T
There is no other symbol more recognized with Texas Tech than the Double T symbol. Though no one has yet stepped forward to claim credit for its design, historical evidence points to Texas Tech's first football coach E.Y. Freeland, who put the Double T logo on sweaters for the football players.

FIGHT SONG (FIGHT! RAIDERS! FIGHT!)
Fight, Raiders, Fight! Fight, Raiders, Fight!
Fight for the school we love so dearly.
You'll hit 'em high, you'll hit 'em low.
You'll push the ball across the goal,
Tech, Fight! Fight!

We'll praise your name, boost you to fame.
Fight for the Scarlet and Black.
You will hit 'em, you will wreck 'em.
Hit 'em! Wreck 'em, Texas Tech!
And the Victory Bells will ring out!
----Written by Carroll McMath

GOIN' BAND FROM RAIDERLAND
The Goin' Band from Raiderland is one of the largest spirit raisers on campus and among the finest bands in the country. The original band in 1925, numbering only 21 members, was dressed in matador uniforms. In recent years, the band's 400 members have returned to variations on that original look. The Goin' Band performs at home and away football games, parades and at other special events. Following home games, devoted fans stick around to join the band in their traditional march out of Jones AT&T Stadium, through the engineering key, around the circle, by the Administration Building and ending at the band parking lot behind the Music Building. The band was the 1998 recipient of the prestigious Sudler Trophy as the nation's top marching band.

GUNS UP
The "Guns Up" sign is the widely recognized greeting of one Red Raider to another. It is also the sign of victory displayed by the crowd at every athletic event. The sign is made by extending the index finger outward while extending the thumb upward and tucking in the middle, little and fourth fingers to form a gun.

The sign can be traced back to L. Glenn Dippel, a 1961 alumnus of Texas Tech. He and his wife Roxie were living in Austin and faced the daily presence of the "Hook 'em Horns" hand sign used by University of Texas fans. So, the Dippels decided to retaliate. They looked to mascot Raider Red and his raised guns for their inspiration and in 1971 developed the Guns Up hand symbol. The Saddle Tramps and Texas Tech cheerleaders immediately adopted Guns Up and a new tradition was born.

HOMECOMING
Homecoming is an exciting week full of activities for Texas Tech students. Such activities include a bonfire, parade, float competitions, open houses, award programs, and of course the homecoming football game. Another favorite event, which has been around since 1954, is the election of the homecoming queen.

MASKED RIDER
The Masked Rider is the oldest and most popular mascot of Texas Tech University that still exists today. Originally the Masked Rider started as a dare in 1936 and was then called the ghost rider, because no one knew the rider's identity. These ghost riders circled the field at home football games and then disappeared.

The Masked Rider did not become an official mascot until 1954, when Joe Kirk Fulton led the team out onto the field at the Gator Bowl. Fulton, wearing Levi's, red shirt, a black cape and mounted on a black horse, awed the crowd as the team made one of the most sensational entrances ever.

TEXAS TECH TRADITIONS

MATADOR SONG (ALMA MATER)
Fight, Matadors, for Tech!
Songs of love we'll sing to thee,
Bear our banners far and wide.
Ever to be our pride,
Fearless champions ever be.
Stand on heights of victory.
Strive for honor evermore.
Long live the Matadors!
----Music by Harry Lemaire, words by R.C. Marshall

RAIDERGATE
RaiderGate is Texas Tech's official Student Tailgating section. Close to 10,000 Texas Tech students will attend the largest party on campus. Come out to RaiderGate, have fun, listen to some live bands, and Get Fired up for YOUR Texas Tech Red Raiders. RaiderGate is held four hours prior to each Home Football game and is brought to you by YOUR Student Government Association.

RAIDER RED
Prior to the 1971 season, the Southwest Conference passed a rule that prevented members of the conference from taking live animals to non-home games unless the host team had no objections. So Jim Gaspard, a member of the Saddle Tramps, created Raider Red from a drawing by the late Lubbock cartoonist Dirk West as an alternative to the Masked Rider. Raider Red's student persona is kept a secret from the Tech community. Red is a public relations mascot who shakes hands with the crowds at athletic events and poses for pictures. He changes from boots to high-top court shoes for basketball games. Raider Red fires his two 12-gauge shotguns using powder-filled shells after every Tech touchdown and field goal.

TTAA CLASS RING AND CEREMONY
Since 1999, The Official Texas Tech Alumni Association Class Ring has been the universal symbol of academic achievement at Texas Tech. The single ring is a tradition that was brought back from the 1950s that encompasses the Double T, Masked Rider, Administration Bell Tower, and the Texas Tech seal. Cast inside each ring is "Strive For Honor," taken from "The Matador Song." Rings are presented by the University president at the Official Ring Ceremony in the Merket Alumni Center.

SADDLE TRAMPS
Formed by Tech student Arch Lamb in 1936, this all-male booster organization supports men's athletics at Texas Tech. The name Saddle Tramp came from the stories of traveling men who would come to a farm for a brief time, fix up some things and move on. Lamb said he decided that he could fix up some things himself before moving on, and the Saddle Tramps were born. Since that time the Saddle Tramps believe if something was for the betterment of Texas Tech then they would work at it.

These Midnight Raiders "paint the campus red" with crepe paper before big home games, form the legendary "Bell Circle" moments before kickoff, ring Bangin' Bertha, participate in parades and other campus events (including the Carol of Lights), and ring the Victory Bells after Red Raider victories.

TEXAS TECH SEAL
Designed by the campus' master planner, William Ward Watkin, in 1924, the Tech Seal's symbols are the lamp, which represents "school," the key for "home," the book for "church," and the star for "state." Cotton bolls represent the area's strong cotton industry and the eagle is suggestive of our country. The seal first appeared on Tech diplomas in 1948, but it wasn't officially approved as "The" Seal of Texas Tech University until 1953. On April 27, 1972, the seal was placed at the Broadway and University entrance to the campus in what became known as the Amon G. Carter Plaza. It is made of red granite and stands 12 feet high. It has been referred to by students through the years as "the Oreo."

VICTORY BELLS
In 1936 victory bells were given to Texas Tech as a class gift. The bells rang for the first time at the 1936 class's graduation. It is said that after the win over TCU, the following year, the bells rang throughout the night. The bells kept Lubbock residents up all night. Thereafter, the bell ringing was limited to 30 minutes. Saddle Tramps ring the bells after Texas Tech victories and during special occasions. The Victory Bells - one large and one small, which combine to weigh 1,200 pounds - hang in the east tower of the Administration Building.

WILL ROGERS AND SOAPSUDS
One of the most well known landmarks on campus is the statue of Will Rogers and his horse Soapsuds. This memorial was dedicated on February 16, 1950 by longtime friend of Rogers, Amon G. Carter. Carter believed Texas Tech was the perfect setting for the statue and that it would fit into the traditions and scenery of West Texas.

The statue stands at 9'11" tall and weighs 3,200 pounds; its estimated cost was $25,000. On the base of the statue, the inscription reads "Lovable Old Will Rogers on his favorite horse, 'Soapsuds,' riding into the Western sunset."

Today Texas Tech tradition and legends surrounds the statue. According to one legend, the plan to face Will Rogers so that he could be riding off into the sunset did not work out as it would cause Soapsuds' rear to be facing downtown. To solve this problem, the horse and Will was turned 23 degrees to the east so the horse's posterior was facing in the direction of Texas A&M, one of the school's rivals.

Before every home football game the Saddle Tramps wrap Old Will with red crepe paper. Will Rogers and Soapsuds have also been wrapped up in black crepe paper to mourn national tragedies.

ROBERT DUNCAN

Chancellor

Robert L. Duncan became the fourth chancellor of the Texas Tech University System on July 7, 2014.

As chancellor, Duncan is the chief executive officer of all campuses and academic sites of the Texas Tech University System's four component institutions—Texas Tech University, Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center, Angelo State University and Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center at El Paso. He is focused on providing each university with the resources needed to ensure the academic achievement of all students enrolled in the system institutions. As part of his leadership, the chancellor also works in both Austin and Washington, D.C. to increase funding for all system institutions.

Before becoming chancellor, Duncan served in the Texas Legislature for more than two decades. He was elected to District 84 in the Texas House of Representatives in 1992. In 1996, he won a special election to the Texas Senate, where he served until resigning to become chancellor.

While representing District 28 as State Senator, Duncan crafted major legislation impacting Texans and served on three of the Senate's most powerful committees—Finance, State Affairs and Budget Conference. He served as president pro tempore of the Texas Senate during the 81st Legislative Session and served as a member of the Senate Committee on Higher Education, the Education Committee and the Natural Resources Committee. He was widely recognized as a leader in the Texas Legislature. Texas Monthly magazine named Duncan to its 'Ten Best List' more times than any other member of the legislature.

Duncan also was a law partner at Crenshaw, Dupree and Milam in Lubbock for more than 25 years. He advised clients in insurance law and commercial litigation, among many others areas of his legal practice, and remains 'of counsel' for the law firm.

Duncan is a lifelong West Texan. He was raised in Vernon, Texas. He is the only son of five children born to Frank L. Duncan and Robena Formby Duncan. Duncan and his family have a rich heritage with Texas Tech University. His uncle, Marshall Formby, and cousin, Clint Formby, both served on the Texas Tech Board of Regents.

Duncan received his bachelor's degree in agricultural economics from Texas Tech University in 1976. While completing his undergraduate degree, he served as the student body president. Duncan received his doctorate of jurisprudence from the Texas Tech University School of Law in 1981.

Duncan has two children. His daughter, Lindsey Pike, is a public school teacher and counselor, and is married to Wes Pike. His son, Matthew Duncan, is a food distribution sales representative. Chancellor Duncan is married to Terri Duncan. Mrs. Duncan also has two children, Justin Patterson, an IT specialist, and Clayton Patterson, an auto-financing assistant. All the children are Texas Tech University graduates.

DR. LAWRENCE SCHOVANEC

President

Texas Tech University System Chancellor Robert Duncan announced July 7 the official appointment of Provost Lawrence Schovanec as the 17th president of Texas Tech University. Schovanec will officially begin the role Aug. 1.

"I am excited to welcome Dr. Schovanec as the next president of Texas Tech University," Duncan said. "He has served Texas Tech tremendously for more than three decades and has a bold vision for our future. I have no doubt he will elevate our university to an even greater level of success."

Prior to his appointment, Schovanec served the university as provost since December 2013 and was interim president from July 2012 through March 2013.

"I am grateful for the opportunity to once again lead this wonderful university, to which I have devoted my career, and continue to work alongside so many talented faculty, staff and students who make Texas Tech University a leader in higher education," Schovanec said. "I appreciate the confidence and support of Chancellor Duncan, the Board of Regents and the search committee. To the Texas Tech family and all who support and care for this university, I commit my fullest efforts to the continued advancement of Texas Tech University as a world-class institution."

During his time as provost, Schovanec helped strengthen Texas Tech's position as a leading national research university. In 2016, Texas Tech was recognized by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education as a Tier One university in the Highest Research Activity category. The university also was recently reaffirmed for accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges.

Before being named chair of the Department of Mathematics & Statistics in 1998, Schovanec was a faculty member in mathematics since 1982. He served as interim dean of the College of Arts & Sciences from September 2008 through May 2010, when he was named dean. He has received the President's Excellence in Teaching Award and is a member of the Texas Tech Teaching Academy.

Schovanec earned his doctorate in mathematics from Indiana University, his master's degree from Texas A&M University and his bachelor of science from Phillips University.

A widely published author, Schovanec's work has appeared in numerous academic journals and he has spoken extensively at professional conferences. His research interests are in the fields of biomechanical and physiological control systems and solid mechanics. He has received more than $3.2 million in external funding for his research.

KIRBY HOCUTT
Director of Athletics

Excellence. Teamwork. Winning. Relationships. Tradition. Change. Celebrate. Fearless. These words are cornerstones for the Texas Tech athletics department under Athletics Director Kirby Hocutt.

Using these ideals, Hocutt has established and maintained a culture of excellence for Texas Tech's 17 varsity sports, 450 student-athletes, 48 coaches and 200-plus employees. Under Hocutt, Texas Tech's main mission is to educate, serve and grow Fearless Champions. His guiding principles of: do the right thing; win; strive for excellence; promote teamwork and positive relationships; honor tradition and embrace change; work hard, have fun and celebrate success; and create lasting memories are evident in all that Texas Tech teams and student-athletes achieve both on the field and in the classroom.

With more than 25 years of intercollegiate athletics leadership experience, including 12 years as an athletic director at three institutions (Texas Tech, Miami and Ohio), Hocutt is nationally renowned for his top-notch relationship building in fundraising, skillful style in hiring coaches, goal-oriented leadership ability, creativity and vision in facility development and focus on athletic and academic excellence. In addition, his approachable, warm, positive and engaging personality makes him a natural at his job. Hocutt's highly regarded national reputation was evident in February 2015 when he was named to the prestigious and powerful 13-member College Football Playoff Selection Committee, and again when he was named Chairman of the committee for the 2016 season.

Since he became Texas Tech's 13th athletics director on March 2, 2011, Hocutt has guided an athletic department that has seen the Red Raider teams claim four Big 12 Conference team Championships (two in women's tennis, baseball and men's track and field), appear in three bowl games (2012 Meinecke Texas Bowl, 2013 Holiday Bowl and 2015 Advocare V100 Texas Bowl), earn 42 NCAA team postseason appearances, advance to baseball's College World Series for the first and second times in school history and reach the NCAA Sweet Sixteen in both women's soccer and women's tennis for the first time in program history.

A Sherman, Texas native, Hocutt also served stints in the athletics departments at Kansas State (1996-97) and the University of Oklahoma (1998-2005). A former football student-athlete at Kansas State, Hocutt was a four-year letterman at linebacker while leading the Big 8 Conference in tackles as a junior in 1993. He was named to the All-Big 8 Conference team following his junior season. The Sporting News selected him in 1993 as one of the nation's top-20 "most underrated" players.

Hocutt earned his bachelor's degree from Kansas State in 1995 and his masters of education degree from the University of Oklahoma in 2001.

Hocutt served as the Big 12 representative on the NCAA Division I Leadership Council (2012-15) and was the chairman of the NCAA Division I Football Recruiting Subcommittee (2013-15). In 2013, he served as chairman for the Lubbock March of Dimes Campaign. Hocutt will add an additional duty to his list beginning with the 2016 football season as he was named the Chairman of the College Football Playoff selection committee. The 13-member CFP selection committee is responsible for selecting the top four teams in the playoff and assigning them to semifinal games as well as placing the next group of teams in the remaining New Year's bowls. He has also served on a variety of conference committees.

He and his wife Diane, have two sons: 13-year old Drew Phillips and 11-year old Brooks Ryan.

HEAD COACH KLIFF KINGSBURY

KLIFF KINGSBURY
@TTUKingsbury
4th Season
Head Coach / Quarterbacks
Texas Tech '01

• Kliff Kingsbury (@TTUKingsbury) begins his fourth season as head coach at Texas Tech. He was named the 15th head coach in program history on Dec. 12, 2012.

• In 2015, his third season at the helm, Kingsbury oversaw Texas Tech's return to the postseason, with a berth in the Advocare V100 Texas Bowl. The Red Raiders went 7-6, including road wins against Arkansas and Texas--the Texas win being the Red Raiders' first win in Austin since 1997. The Red Raider offense finished the season ranked second in the nation in scoring offense (45.1 ppg), total offense (579.5 ypg) and passing offense (388.2 ypg), while leading the NCAA in plays gaining at least 10 yards (284). Quarterback Patrick Mahomes II became the 13th quarterback in NCAA history to amass 5,000 yards of total offense in a single season (5,112) to go along with 46 total touchdowns (36 passing, 10 rushing). Running back DeAndre Washington became the first Red Raider since Byron Hanspard (1995-96) to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons, after amassing 1,492 rushing yards and 16 total touchdowns. Wide receiver Jakeem Grant finished the season with a school-record 2,353 all-purpose yards, giving Texas Tech its first season in school history with a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver.

• In his second season as head coach, Kingsbury led a young and inexperienced squad to a 4-8 overall record. His potent offense began to develop the balance he had been seeking, as running back DeAndre Washington became the first Red Raider to rush for over 1,000 yards in a single season since Ricky Williams did so in 1998. The Red Raider offense finished the season ranked 10th (504.1 yards-per-game) nationally while the pass offense ranked fifth (351.1 yards-per-game).

• In his first season in 2013, Kingsbury led the Red Raiders to an 8-5 overall record and a stunning 37-23 win over No. 16 Arizona State in the National University Holiday Bowl. He became just the second coach in school history to win a bowl game in his first season as the Red Raiders dismantled the heavily favored Sun Devils in San Diego. His popularity also helped revitalize the Texas Tech fan base as the Red Raiders set a new school record for average home attendance (57,933 average per game).

• Kingsbury returned to his collegiate roots after a one-year stint as offensive coordinator at Texas A&M in 2012 where he played a major role in leading freshman quarterback Johnny Manziel to the Heisman Trophy. Under his guidance, the Aggie offense finished third nationally in total offense by averaging 552.33 yards per game. The Aggies ranked 14th nationally in passing offense and 13th nationally in rushing offense, making Texas A&M one of the most balanced attacks in college football. For the second consecutive year, Kingsbury was named the national offensive coordinator of the year.

• Kingsbury made the move to Texas A&M from the University of Houston where he played a key role in the Cougars' record-setting 13-win season in 2011. The Cougars finished 2011 with a 13-1 record and posted the program's highest final BCS finish in school history (No. 19).

• Kingsbury served as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Cougars in 2011, and was named the 2011 Offensive Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop.com. The Cougars led the nation in total offense, passing offense and scoring in 2011, while record-setting quarterback Case Keenum placed seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting and won the Sammy Baugh Award. With Kingsbury calling the offensive plays, the Cougars averaged 599.1 total yards per game, including 450.1 through the air, while scoring over 49 points per game. The Cougars scored over 70 points in two games in 2011, and finished the season with a 30-14 win over Penn State in the TicketCity Bowl. Kingsbury was instrumental in the continued development of Keenum, who finished his illustrious career as the most prolific passer in NCAA FBS history. In his one season with Kingsbury as his QB coach, Keenum completed 428-of-604 passes for 5,631 yards and 48 touchdowns, all NCAA FBS bests.

HEAD COACH KLIFF KINGSBURY

• In his first season as quarterbacks coach at Houston in 2010, Kingsbury prepped a true freshman signal caller, David Piland, to an average of 330.1 yards passing per game, which ranked No. 3 nationally. He was named to the Sporting News Freshman All-America team.

• After a five-year professional football career, Kingsbury entered the coaching ranks in the spring of 2008 when he joined Kevin Sumlin's staff as an offensive quality control assistant. A sixth-round draft pick in 2003 by the New England Patriots, Kingsbury played for five NFL teams and also saw action in the Canadian Football League and the All-American Football League.

• Kingsbury was drafted by Bill Belichick and the New England Patriots after a record-setting career at Texas Tech. Kingsbury received multiple honors including Associated Press Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year as a quarterback for the Red Raiders. In addition, he set 39 school records, 16 Big 12 marks and 17 NCAA records during his career at Tech (1999-2002). As a senior he was awarded the Sammy Baugh Trophy, presented annually to the nation's best college quarterback.

• The first in a long line of record-setting Texas Tech quarterbacks under then-head coach Mike Leach, Kingsbury recorded more than 12,000 passing yards and total offense including over 1,000 pass completions making him only the third player in NCAA history to accomplish all three. Kingsbury also excelled in the classroom as he was one of 14 collegiate football players to receive a post-graduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame as he also garnered Academic All-America Player of the Year honors in 2002.

• A native of New Braunfels, Texas, Kingsbury graduated from Texas Tech in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in management.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

DAVID GIBBS
@CoachDavidGibbs
2nd Season
Defensive Coordinator / Safeties
Colorado '90

• David Gibbs was named defensive coordinator at Texas Tech on Jan. 5, 2015. The 23-year coaching veteran has eight years of experience as a defensive coordinator on the NCAA FBS level and nine years of NFL coaching experience.

• In his first season at the helm of the Red Raider defense, Gibbs preached the importance of causing turnovers and the effects showed as Tech had a dramatic improvement in the turnover department. Tech went from a minus-13 turnover margin in 2014 to plus-2 in 2015. The Red Raiders picked off 15 passes and recovered 10 fumbles in 2015, after forcing just 15 turnovers overall in 2014.

• Gibbs oversaw the Red Raider defensive backs, including Jah'Shawn Johnson, who ranked second nationally in fumble recoveries (4), the most memorable being his strip of Arkansas' Alex Collins late in the fourth quarter, sealing a big Red Raider road victory.

• Has coached two NFL first-round picks in the last four years, D.J. Hayden and William Jackson III.

• Member of a coaching staff that has played in a bowl game in 10 of his 14 years on the collegiate level.

• Under Gibbs' leadership, the Houston defense ranked as the third-most improved scoring defense nationally and ranked 20th nationally in allowing 21.8 points per game after allowing 36 points a game in 2012.

• The 2013 Houston defense led the nation with 43 turnovers forced to help lead the Cougars to a nation's best plus-25 turnover margin. Trevon Stewart led the nation and set a UH record with six fumble recoveries while Adrian McDonald led The American Athletic Conference with six interceptions.

• The dramatic defensive overhaul under Gibbs continued in 2014 as Houston finished the regular season ranked 11th nationally in scoring defense at 19.5 points per game and 19th nationally in total defense at 334.6 yards per game. The Houston defense was fifth nationally with 30 takeaways, including 19 interceptions, a number that ranked sixth nationally. Two players (Joey Mbu and Adrian McDonald) received First Team honors from The American while two others (William Jackson and Efrem Oliphant) received Second Team honors from the league.

• Prior to Houston, Gibbs' last collegiate coaching stop was in 2005 when he served as defensive coordinator at Auburn. The Tiger defense ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 15.5 points per game, while ranking 11th in sacks (39) and 16th in third-down defense.

• On the professional level, Gibbs spent a combined nine seasons in Denver, Kansas City and Houston as a defensive backs coach. Teams sporting Gibbs on staff finished in the top 12 of total defense five times and advanced to the NFL Playoffs on three occasions. Three players under Gibbs earned NFL Pro Bowl selections in Champ Bailey, John Lynch and Deltha O'Neal.

• Gibbs received his NFL start in Denver where in his first year the Broncos defense ranked No. 6 in the league in interceptions and No. 9 in total defense. In 2002 the defense improved to No. 6 in total defense and No. 3 in passing touchdowns allowed. The following two years saw Denver advance to the playoffs as the Broncos ranked fourth in the NFL in total defense both years. Both years saw the squad finish sixth in passing defense and in the top 10 of scoring defense.

• In his return to the NFL in 2006, Gibbs assisted a Kansas City defense that improved in one season from 25th in total defense to 12th. In 2007, the Chiefs improved to No. 5 in the league in passing defense while ranking fourth in passing touchdowns allowed.

• The Chiefs allowed just one 300-yard passer in each of his first two seasons in Kansas City. After helping the 2008 Kansas City defense to finish ninth in turnovers forced, Gibbs moved to Houston where the Texans' pass defense improved seven spots to 10th in the league in passing defense in his first year.

• Gibbs became the youngest coordinator on the FBS level at the time as the then 29-year old took over as a defensive coordinator at Minnesota in 1997. Gibbs improved a Minnesota defense that had ranked last in the Big Ten in 1996 to one that was ranked eighth in the nation in pass efficiency defense and scoring defense by 1999.

• His defense helped lead the Golden Gophers to back-to-back bowl games in 1999 and 2000. Players from Gibbs' span at the school (1997-2000) currently own 17 individual defensive records at Minnesota while his 1997 group holds the team record with 41 sacks in a season.

• Under Gibbs' tutelage, Tyrone Carter won the 1999 Jim Thorpe Award and back-to-back All-America honors in 1998 and 1999. Defensive end Lamanzer Williams earned All-American honors in 1997 as Gibbs' defense produced an All-American in three straight seasons for the first time at Minnesota since 1961-63.

• Defensive end Karon Riley was named the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year in 2000. Under Gibbs, six Minnesota defensive players earned first team All-Big Ten honors while six more earned second team honors.

• Gibbs earned his first full-time coaching position in 1995 at the University of Kansas where he coached the program's defensive backs. The Jayhawks advanced to just their eighth bowl game in program history in Gibbs' first year where they defeated UCLA in the Hawaii Bowl. Defensive back Dorian Brew earned All-Big Eight honors in Gibbs' first season at Kansas while Tony Blevins and Jason Harris each earned All-Big 12 honors under Gibbs.

• Gibbs earned his first coaching opportunity with back-to-back two-year stints as a graduate assistant at both Colorado and Oklahoma before moving on to Kansas. Oklahoma won the 1991 Gator Bowl while Colorado collected wins in the 1993 Aloha Bowl and 1994 Fiesta Bowl with Gibbs on staff.

• The Auburn, Ala., native was a four-year letterman at the University of Colorado from 1987-90 and started at defensive back for the 1990 national-title winning Colorado team and the 11-1 1989 team that finished fourth nationally in the season's final polls. Gibbs graduated from Colorado in 1990, earning Academic All-Big Eight honors as a senior.

Texas Tech '08

• A 2008 graduate of Texas Tech, Morris begins his fourth season at his alma mater and his third as offensive coordinator.

• In 2015, Morris guided one of the nation's truly elite offenses. The Red Raiders carried top-five national rankings in third down conversion percentage (No. 1), passing offense (No. 2), total offense (No. 2), scoring offense (No. 2) and first downs (No. 5). Morris' offense was quarterbacked by Patrick Mahomes II, who became just the 13th quarterback in NCAA history to amass 5,000 yards of total offense in a season. Mahomes ranked fourth in the nation in both passing yards and points responsible for. Morris also had an extremely effective ground game at his disposal, as DeAndre Washington became just the fifth back in Tech history to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons, accumulating 1,492 yards, which ranked 15th nationally.

• Morris, in his first season as the lone offensive coordinator, helped guide Texas Tech to a No. 10 national ranking in total offense in 2014 as the Red Raiders averaged 504.1 yards-per-game. Additionally, the pass offense ended the season with a No. 5 national ranking as Tech averaged 351.1 yards-per-game through the air.

He also coached Jace AmaroClick here to hear it, one of the best receivers in school history. Amaro set an FBS record for the most receiving yards (1,352) in a single-season by a tight end and was named an NCAA Consensus All-American.

• Spent the 2012 season as the inside receivers coach on former Texas Tech Head Coach Mike Leach's staff at Washington State. Prior to heading to Pullman, he spent two years on Kevin Sumlin's staff at the University of Houston, as an offensive graduate assistant and as the offensive quality control assistant in 2010.

OFFENSIVE LINE

LEE HAYS
@LeeHays
4th Season
Offensive Line
Texas A&M Kingsville '96

• Lee Hays begins his fourth season as offensive line coach at Texas Tech and is in his second coaching stint alongside head coach Kliff Kingsbury.

• Hays' success continued in 2015, as DeAndre Washington became just the fifth back in Tech history to notch back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons, running behind Hays' line. Hays' line, anchored once again by second team All-American Le'Raven Clark, protected Patrick Mahomes II, who amassed more than 5,000 yards of total offense, only allowing him to be sacked 27 times. Tech's 27 sacks allowed ranked third in the Big 12. Clark went on to be a third-round selection of the Indianapolis Colts in the 2016 NFL Draft.

• In his second season at Texas Tech in 2014, Hays' offensive line was arguably the most improved unit on the team. His line allowed just 13 sacks in 12 games and that mark ranked second in the Big 12 and tied for 12th nationally. Le'Raven Clark was a consensus First-Team All Big 12 selection at left tackle.

• Joined the Texas Tech staff in the spring of 2013 after completing his second coaching stop at the University of Houston where he served as offensive line coach in 2012.

• The Del Rio, Texas, native served as the assistant offensive line coach for the Houston Cougars in 2010 and enjoyed successful offensive coordinator stints at Tarleton State (2011), Baylor (2006-07) and West Texas A&M (2003-05). At each of those stops his programs annually produced some of college football's top offensive outputs, running the highly-successful "Air Raid", which is currently run by the Houston Cougars.

• It was that work with UH's young offensive linemen in 2010 that helped three first-year starters, Kevin Forsch (Honorable Mention All-C-USA), Ty Cloud and Rowdy Harper (Conference USA All-Freshman Team) make the transition to starters in 2011.

• Widely respected for his work along the offensive line, Hays has coached five All-Americans, 27 First-Team All-Conference players, three conference offensive Linemen of the Year award winners, one Dave Rimington Award winner and two NFL Draft picks. His coaching tenure has also helped produce five conference championship teams and six NCAA Division II playoff entrants.

• His background includes a near-decade stint with the United States Marine Corps' 4th Reconnaissance Battalion (1987-96). He rose to the rank of staff sergeant and completed the Marine Corps' Sniper School. He served as a staff noncommissioned officer and as a recon marine during his military career.

• Before he entered the Marines, Hays played defensive end and linebacker at Cisco Junior College for two years, then spent one year at Abilene Christian. He then returned to football and earned his bachelor's degree from Texas A&M-Kingsville in 1996 and his master's degree from West Texas A&M University in 2004.

• From 2003-05, Hays was the architect of West Texas A&M's high-octane spread offenses utilizing the Air Raid attack. West Texas A&M enjoyed its most successful season in 55 years in 2005, largely due to the success of Hays' offensive creativity. The Buffaloes went 10-2 to record their first winning season since 1998 (the program had won a combined seven games in the previous four years) and post the school's first 10-win campaign since 1950. Along the way, WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference title with an 8-1 record, its first league championship since 1986, and advanced to the NCAA Division II Playoffs for the first time in school history where it lost in the quarterfinals.

• The 2005 Buffalo offense led the NCAA Division II ranks in passing offense at 363.8 yards per game, while ranking No. 7 in scoring offense (40.3 ppg) and No. 9 in total offense (477.3 ypg). His 2005 offense set school records for completion percentage (.669) and total yards per attempt (6.9 ypa).

• Spent two years at Baylor (2006-07), with BU averaging 23.6 points per game, the team's best mark since 1996. The spread attack also allowed Baylor to break almost every school single-game and season passing record. The Bears ranked third in the Big 12 and No. 11 nationally in passing yards per game (275.0).

• Spent the 2011 season at Tarleton State where the club averaged 32.1 points and nearly 400 yards of offense per game (391.9). Tarleton was one of the most improved teams in NCAA Division II, doubling its win total from 3-8 in 2010 to 6-5 in 2011. The offensive output was also a huge benefactor of Hays' experience. Tarleton averaged just 21.5 points per game the year before his arrival.

• Hays and his wife, Roxanne, have a daughter, Shanlee, and a son, Cade.

JOE ROBINSON

1st Season
Special Teams
LSU '85

• Texas Tech head coach Kliff Kingsbury announced Jan. 4 the hiring of Joe Robinson as special teams coordinator. Robinson previously served in a similar capacity at the University of South Carolina.

• Robinson, a native of Abilene, Texas, returns to his roots in West Texas following four seasons at South Carolina, the final three of which he focused solely on special teams. He previously coached tight ends as well as special teams during his first season in 2012.

• In his four seasons in Columbia, Robinson produced several strong special teams units for a South Carolina program that recorded a pair of 11-win seasons and three bowl appearances during his tenure.

• South Carolina ranked among the national leaders in several special teams categories during Robinson's final season in 2015, finishing seventh in net punting, 24th in kickoff return defense and 30th in kickoff returns. The Gamecocks previously ranked ninth nationally in 2012 for punt returns and 18th for punt return defense.

• During Robinson's first year, Ace Sanders set a school record for punt return yards in a season while earning second team All-America honors and SEC Special Teams Player of the Year accolades. Pharoh Cooper also earned Freshman All-SEC honors under Robinson in 2013 as a return specialist.

• Prior to joining the staff at South Carolina, Robinson spent one season as the defensive line coach at the University of North Carolina (2011) and three years coaching the defensive line and specials teams at LSU (2008-10).

• Robinson earned his acclaim as a top special teams coordinator while at LSU. In 2010. LSU finished in the top 13 nationally that year in net punting, kickoff return average and punt return average en route to a trip to the Cotton Bowl.

• An 11-year coaching veteran, Patrick has mentored NFL defensive linemen Jason Pierre-Paul (New York Giants), George Selvie (Dallas Cowboys) and Terrell McClain (Houston Texans). He arrives at Texas Tech following two seasons as the defensive line coach at the University of North Texas.

• During Patrick's two seasons at North Texas (2014-15), the Mean Green combined for 52 sacks as the program regularly ranked among the top Conference USA pass rushing units. North Texas totaled 33 sacks alone in Patrick's first season, which tied for fifth-most in school history. The Mean Green closed the 2014 season ranked No. 25 nationally in team sacks per game (2.75) and among the nation's top-50 units in total defense. North Texas was led by the emergence of defensive end Chad Polk, who, despite an undersized frame, became an All-CUSA selection after totaling 25 tackles and a team-high 5.5 sacks.

• Patrick, a native of West Palm Beach, Fla., joined the North Texas staff following his second stint as the defensive line coach at the University of South Florida. He spent a total of nine seasons on the USF staff under head coaches Jim Leavitt, Skip Holtz and Willie Taggart, coaching defensive ends (1996-98 and 2008), defensive tackles (2010-13) and the entire defensive line (2009).

McClain was drafted the following year in the 2011 NFL Draft third round by the Carolina Panthers after earning first team All-Big East honors. Selvie, meanwhile, was a first team All-American during Patrick's first season back with the program in 2008 and later ended his career as the program's all-time career leader in both sacks and tackles for a loss.

• Under Patrick, USF regularly rated among the nation's top defenses as the Bulls finished among the NCAA's top-25 units in total defense four times. The Bulls also ranked among the nation's top-25 three times in team tackles for a loss (2010-11 and 2013) and as high as fourth in total sacks (2011).

• In addition to his coaching duties, Patrick was also honored for his work on the recruiting trail as Rivals named him one of the nation's top-25 recruiters in 2009, as well as the top recruiter in the Big East Conference. The recognition came after USF signed four four-star recruits, including Pierre-Paul, on National Signing Day.

• Patrick was an All-American defensive lineman during his playing career at the University of Miami, Fla., where he helped lead the Hurricanes to two National Championships with victories over Alabama in the 1990 Sugar Bowl and Nebraska in the 1992 Orange Bowl. Miami also made appearances in the Cotton and Fiesta Bowls during Patrick's career (1989-93). In 1993, Patrick was named the Big East Defensive Player of the Year after leading the Hurricanes with 10 sacks. He also earned All-America honors and team Most Valuable Player accolades that year en route to concluding his career with 174 total tackles and 23 sacks, the fifth highest total in program history. He was also a two-year letterwinner in track and field, throwing the shot put and discus during his junior and senior years.

ZAC SPAVITAL

2nd Season
Linebackers/Recruiting Coordinator
Murray State '04

• Zac Spavital begins his second season as Texas Tech's linebackers coach/recruiting coordinator after spending the last seven years at the University of Houston, where he coached defensive backs.

• Since Spavital's arrival alongside defensive Coordinator David Gibbs, Tech has had a dramatic improvement in the turnover department. Tech went from a -13 turnover margin in 2014 to +2 in 2015. The Red Raiders picked off 15 passes and recovered 10 fumbles in 2015, after forcing just 15 turnovers overall in 2014.

• In 2016, Spavital has returners Malik Jenkins and D'Vonta Hinton, who combined for 9.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and two forced fumbles a season ago, to anchor the linebacker core.

• Spavital has recruited and coached two NFL first-round picks in the last four years, D.J. Hayden and William Jackson III.

• Adrian McDonald and William Jackson gave Spavital his third straight season with all-conference performers in 2014 as McDonald was named to The American's First Team after finishing the year with five interceptions and three fumble recoveries while Jackson was named to The American's Second Team. The group helped Houston lead the league in turnovers forced as it totaled 19 takeaways.

• Spavital's defensive backs played a major role in 2013 as the Houston defense was the third-most improved scoring defense nationally and ranked 20th nationally in allowing 21.8 points per game after allowing 36 points a game in 2012.

• The 2013 Houston defense led the nation with 43 turnovers forced to help lead the Cougars to a nation-best plus-25 turnover margin. His defensive backs group accounted for 29 of the team's 43 turnovers.

• Trevon Stewart led the nation and set a UH record with six fumble recoveries while Adrian McDonald led The American Athletic Conference with six interceptions. Stewart and cornerback Zach McMillian, who also had five interceptions, were both named to The American's second team.

• In 2012, Spavital's unit produced three players with Conference USA honors as D.J. Hayden was named First Team All-Conference USA, Stewart was named to league's freshman team and McMillian earned C-USA honorable mention honors. In addition, Stewart was named to the FWAA Freshman All-American team as he led all freshmen nationally with 126 tackles. McMillian led Conference USA with five interceptions while Hayden was second with four. In all, Spavital's group accounted for 14 interceptions.

• Under Spavital's leadership, Hayden became the first Houston player selected in the NFL Draft's first round since 1997 when he was selected 12th overall by the Oakland Raiders in 2013.

• Houston's defense was vastly improved in 2011 and ranked third nationally with 21 interceptions. Hayden was named Conference USA Defensive Newcomer of the Year and was a Second Team All-C-USA pick. Overall the secondary allowed 16 yards less per game through the air despite breaking in three new starters and allowed two less TD throws in two more games played.

• During the 2010 season, Spavital narrowed his focus to tutoring the safety position and aided a foursome of defenders who accounted for 213 tackles, four interceptions, 3.5 tackles for loss and eight passes broken up.

• In 2009, the Cougars recorded 11 interceptions with cornerbacks Jamal Robinson and Brandon Brinkley finishing 1-2 on the team. Brinkley posted four pickoffs for 108 yards on the way to being named to the All-Conference USA Second Team. Robinson etched his name into Cougar lore with a 26-yard return for touchdown at No. 5/6 Oklahoma State that sealed the win for the Cougars. Brinkley finished his career ranked among the Cougars' alltime career leaders in interceptions, games played and pass breakups.

• During Spavital's first season with the Cougars in 2008, Houston defensive backs picked off 13 opposing passes with the four interceptions by Brinkley and Loyce Means topping all players.

• Prior to Houston, Spavital spent three seasons as the defensive graduate assistant on Bob Stoops' staff at Oklahoma, where he worked closely with the defensive backfield and the scout team. Spavital helped lead the Sooners to a pair of Big 12 titles and two appearances in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

• Statistically, in each of his three seasons at OU, the Sooners' defense ranked at the top of the Big 12 and among the elite in the country in total defense. Oklahoma never finished outside of the top two in total defense in the Big 12, leading the league in both 2005 and 2006 while ranking second in 2007. Nationally, the Sooners ranked 13th in total defense in 2005, 16th in 2006 and 26th in 2007.

• Coached six players who earned All-Big 12 honors and five players who went on to sign NFL contracts, including 2007 third-round NFL Draft pick Reggie Smith.

• A native of Tulsa, Okla., Spavital played football at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M for two seasons before transferring to Murray State in Kentucky where he played for two years. He was an All-Conference and All-Region selection and was named a Gridwire Scholar All-American.

GAME 1 • TEXAS TECH 59, SAM HOUSTON STATE 45

SCORE	1	2	3	4	F
S.H. State	14	17	0	14	45

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Patrick Mahomes II threw for 425 yards and four touchdowns, two each to Ian Sadler and Devin Lauderdale, to lead Texas Tech past Sam Houston State 59-45 on Saturday.

The sophomore also ran for 48 yards on five carries.

Jakeem Grant ran for his third career kickoff return for a TD on a 94-yarder. He also scored the Red Raiders (1-0) first TD on a 3-yard run.

Mahomes completed 33 of 53 passes with one interception. That pick led to the first of two TDs by Sam Houston State's Donavan Williams.

Lauderdale finished with 150 yards on eight catches.

The Bearkats (0-1), a Football Championship Subdivision team, stayed close in the first half but were shut out in the third quarter.

Sam Houston's Jared Johnson completed 18 of 28 passes for 144 yards with an interception. Backup Jerimiah Briscoe threw a 29-yard TD pass to Davion Davis.

Mahomes showed his mobility - the facet of his play that coach Kliff Kingsbury likes a lot - in the pocket early in the second quarter. On third and 4 from the Bearkats 10, he looked like he was going to run up the middle but then backed up and went to his right. When that path closed he reversed course and scampered until he saw Sadler just across the goal line. Mahomes squared his shoulders and fired the ball to his receiver to put the Red Raiders up 21-14.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	FI
UTEP	7	10	0	3	20
Texas Tech	17	21	17	14	69

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Patrick Mahomes II threw for four touchdowns and ran for two more to lead Texas Tech past UTEP 69-20 on Saturday.

The sophomore completed 18 of 33 passes for 361 yards

Mahomes' scoring passes went to Jakeem Grant (60 yards), Justin Stockton (46 yards), Reginald Davis (35 yards) and Devin Lauderdale (34 yards).

DeAndre Washington scored on a 51-yard run for the Red Raiders (2-0), and Mahomes' rushing TDs were from 7 yards and 1 yard.

Washington got 138 yards rushing on 12 carries.

Miners' running back Aaron Jones scored on a 91-yard rush - the longest running play in UTEP history. He got hurt and left the game just before halftime with a left ankle injury. The Miners (0-2) really needed him in the second half.

Jones also scored on a 24-yard pass from quarterback Mack Leftwich, who completed 14 of 22 passes for 164 yards.

The game was a far cry from last year's when Texas Tech had to come from behind to beat the Miners 30-26 in El Paso.

And it was a much better defensive outing for the Red Raiders, who gave up 637 total yards last week in their 59-45 win over Sam Houston State. On Saturday, Texas Tech gave up 414 total yards.

Mahomes came out early in the fourth quarter and was replaced by Red Raiders backup Davis Webb, who scored twice on rushing TDs, a 1-yarder and a 5-yarder.

GAME 3 • TEXAS TECH 35, ARKANSAS 24

SCORE	1	2	3	4	FI

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) - Patrick Mahomes II accounted for three touchdowns as Texas Tech remained unbeaten with a 35-24 non-conference win over reeling Arkansas on Saturday night.

The win improves the Red Raiders (3-0) to 9-1 in nonconference action under coach Kliff Kingsbury, and it makes amends for a 49-28 loss to the Razorbacks a year ago.

Mahomes finished 26-of-30 passing for 243 yards and a score, and he also rushed for 58 yards and a pair of touchdowns - leading a Texas Tech offense that finished with 486 total yards. Reginald Davis caught a pair of touchdowns, finishing with five catches for 115 yards.

Alex Collins had 170 yards rushing on 28 carries to lead Arkansas (1-2), which is now 0-9 under coach Bret Bielema in games decided by fewer than 10 points.

The Razorbacks gained 424 yards of total offense, including a 16-of-21 passing performance for 196 yards from quarterback Brandon Allen, but they were unable to rebound from last week's crushing loss to Toledo.

Texas Tech, meanwhile, never punted while scoring touchdowns on five of its nine possessions. Its only four non-scoring drives ended with a pair of interceptions thrown by Mahomes, a missed 22-yard field goal and the game-ending series of kneel downs.

The Red Raiders averaged 8.4 yards per play against an Arkansas defense that finished last season ranked 10th in the nation, and DeAndre Washington led the Texas Tech rushing attack with 75 carries on 11 carries.

Arkansas rushed 68 times for 438 yards in a dominating 49-28 win at Texas Tech a year ago, but the Razorbacks entered Saturday struggling to establish their once-dominant running attack - particularly in a shocking 16-12 loss to Toledo a week ago.

Led by Collins, Arkansas once again had its way with the Red Raiders 120th-ranked rushing defense in the first half. Collins had 92 of the Razorbacks 130 yards rushing in the half, helping a short-handed Arkansas offense hold the ball for 22:35 compared to just 7:25 for Texas Tech.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Patrick Mahomes II completed 25 of 45 passes for 392 yards in a loss to TCU on Saturday in the Big 12 opener for both teams.

On fourth-and-goal from the 4, Trevone Boykin's pass was high to Josh Doctson, but he got a hand on it and Green grabbed the ball as he fell out of the end zone. A video review confirmed Green had control of the ball and got a foot in bounds.

Mahomes, who was injured in the first quarter, completed 25 of 45 passes for 392 yards. He threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score for the Red Raiders (3-1, 0-1).

TCU went ahead 48-45 on Kyle Hicks' 21-yard run with 8:22 left. Texas Tech answered after two clutch third-down plays when Mahomes found Justin Stockton on a 50-yard scoring pass with 5:55 to go.

The teams traded empty possession before the Horned Frogs started at their own 47 and drove downfield for the winning touchdown.

The Red Raiders didn't give up after TCU scored. On the final play of the game - after time expired and a defensive penalty on TCU - Mahomes found DeAndre Washington for a 24-yard gain. He pitched it to a lineman, who pitched it to a receiver who got the ball to Jakeem Grant. He was pushed out of bounds at the TCU 10 to end the game.

Washington ran for four touchdowns and a career-high 188 yards.

Mahomes hurt his left knee early in the first quarter when he dove toward the end zone as he finished a 15-yard run. He got up limping but stayed in for the next play to hand the ball to Washington who scored on a 1-yard run

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Patrick Mahomes II threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, two to Jakeem Grant, to lead Texas Tech past Iowa State 66-31 on Saturday for the Red Raiders' first Big 12 win.

Grant had a career-high 166 yards on nine catches. He caught TD passes of 75 and 37 yards for Texas Tech (4-2, 1-2). It was Grant's third 100-plus-yard game this season.

DeAndre Washington had a receiving and a rushing TD, while Justin Stockton scored on a 54-yard rush.

The Red Raiders intercepted Cyclones quarterback Sam Richardson three times - two by J.J. Gaines - and Texas Tech scored touchdowns off two of them.

Mahomes was sacked for only the second time this season when he was called for intentional grounding.

Redshirt freshman Mike Warren had his third straight game of more than 100 yards for the Cyclones (2-3, 1-1), finishing with a career-high 245 yards on 23 carries.

Iowa State quarterback Sam Richardson completed 10 of 21 for 139 yards and three interceptions. He had three coming into the game.

Joshua Thomas scored two rushing touchdowns for the Cyclones, each from a yard out.

Texas Tech's 776 total yards was a school record.

Red Raiders pass offense was the best in the country coming into the game but their receiving corps has thinned due to injuries. Ian Sadler and Devin Lauderdale, who have combined for five TDs and 527 yards, did not play.

That gave true freshman Jonathan Giles opportunities he might not have had. He caught a 3-yard touchdown from Mahomes and a 21-yarder from backup Davis Webb who took over for Mahomes in the fourth quarter. Giles' five catches and 59 yards receiving were career-highs.

Mahomes completed 33 of 46 passes with no interceptions.

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) - Patrick Mahomes threw for 354 yards and a score, De'Andre Washington rushed for 157 yards and a TD and Texas Tech held off a late-charging, winless Kansas team 30-20 on Saturday.

The Red Raiders (5-2, 2-2 Big 12) racked up 222 yards rushing and a touchdown on the ground. Texas Tech's 30 points were the least amount the team has scored all season.

Five different Texas Tech offensive playmakers recorded over 50 yards receiving. Zach Austin led the Red Raiders with 80 yards receiving, Jakeem Grant had 71 yards, Devin Lauderdale had 50, Cameron Batson, 58, and Reginald Davis, 57 yards and a score.

Texas Tech continued its streak of perfection, as the Red Raiders are 9-0 inside Memorial Stadium, a record dating to 1966.

Kansas (0-6, 0-3) is riding a nine-game losing streak and is 0-6 for the first time since 1988. Before this season, Kansas had only started 0-6 three times in program history, in 1954 and 1988. Head coach David Beaty is still waiting for his first win.

Freshman quarterback Ryan Willis was 35 of 50 for a career-high 330 yards passing in his second start for the Jayhawks. Willis turned the ball over three times, throwing two picks and dropped a fumble. Running back De'Andre Mann gained 107 yards on 15 carries.

Kansas had its share of bloopers, most of those coming on special teams.

Matthew Wyman missed an extra point attempt and two field goals, a 52-yard attempt and a 34-yard attempt, and Nick Bartolotta shanked a 22-yard field goal wide right.

But Kansas wasn't going out without a fight. Kansas had back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter to put them down by 3.

With less than five minutes to go, Willis was backed up in his own end zone, which would have resulted in a safety, but he fumbled. Two Texas Tech defenders wrestled for the ball, but the ball rolled to Mann, who ran out of the end zone for a 4-yard gain.

But the momentum quickly shifted. On the next play, Willis threw a pick-six and Kansas' comeback hopes were dashed.

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) - Texas Tech quarterback Patrick Mahomes passed for 233 yards and ran for 58 in Saturday's loss to Oklahoma.

DeAndre Washington ran for 94 yards and a touchdown for the Red Raiders (5-3, 2-3).

"Any time you give up 400 yards rushing and throw four interceptions, there are very few positives to be had," Tech coach Kliff Kingsbury said.

Oklahoma jumped to a 21-3 lead, but two turnovers by the Sooners became scores for the Red Raiders. Reginald Davis caught a 6-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes, and Washington scored from 13 yards out to bring the Red Raiders back.

Perine rumbled in from 10 yards out to give the Sooners a 28-17 lead at halftime and the Sooners took a 49-27 lead into the fourth quarter.

Texas Tech looks to become bowl eligible with a win next week when the Red Raiders host Oklahoma State.

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP) - West Virginia running backs Wendell Smallwood and Rushel Shell responded to a challenge from their coaches to take control against Texas Tech.

Smallwood rushed for 163 yards and a touchdown, Shell had 111 yards and two scores, and West Virginia beat Texas Tech 31-26 on Saturday.

West Virginia (4-4, 1-4 Big 12) broke a four-game losing streak while Texas Tech (5-5, 2-5) lost its third straight in trying to become bowl eligible.

The Mountaineers compiled 300 yards on the ground against one of the nation's worst rush defenses. Shell and Smallwood surpassed 100 yards against the Red Raiders for the second straight year.

Shell, who had averaged 33 rushing yards in his three previous games, earned his first 100-yard effort of the season.

During the week leading up to the game, Shell said running backs coach Ja'Juan Seider and Holgorsen "just told us that this game could really come down to me and Wendell, that we could take control, that we could win it.

"We felt like we wanted that task and felt that we handled it perfectly."

Holgorsen improved to 2-1 as West Virginia's coach against Texas Tech coach Kliff Kingsbury. Kingsbury was the Red Raiders' starting quarterback from 2000-02, when Holgorsen was the team's wide receivers coach. Holgorsen was the offensive coordinator at Houston in 2008 when he helped Kingsbury join Kevin Sumlin's staff.

Texas Tech, which had exceeded 50 points five times this season, was held to a season low for points and yards (378).

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Patrick Mahomes II threw for 384 yards and three touchdowns, including two to Justin Stockton, and DeAndre Washington rushed for three more as Texas Tech beat Kansas State 59-44.

The win snapped a three-game skid. The loss extended the Wildcats winless streak to six, a first since 1989.

Mahomes completed 33 of 42 passes and rushed for a touchdown for Texas Tech (6-5, 3-5 Big 12).

Stockton's touchdowns were for 17 and 20 yards. He also rushed for a 7-yard score. Mahomes' other touchdown pass was a 19-yarder to Devin Lauderdale.

Washington scored from 80 yards - a career-long - 5 yards and 12 yards to finish with a career-high 248 yards.

Kansas State (3-6, 0-6) quarterback Joe Hubener rushed for three 1-yard touchdowns and threw for two more. Morgan Burns added a TD on a 93-yard kickoff return.

Hubener threw both his touchdown passes in the fourth quarter as the Wildcats tried for a second comeback. He found Dominique Heath for a 6-yard score and threw a 33-yard touchdown to Kyle Klein. An onside kick kept the Wildcats in it, but trailing 52-41 they needed a touchdown. They settled for a 43-yard field goal to whittle the deficit to 52-44.

In order for Kansas State to go to a bowl this year the Wildcats need to win their remaining games against Iowa State, Kansas and West Virginia.

Washington's rushing yardage was the first time since 1999 that Texas Tech has had a 200-plus-yard game when Shaud Williams had 230 against Colorado.

Washington's 80-yard scamper for score was a career long for him and was the team's longest run of the season.

The Red Raiders scored on five of their first seven possessions and the Wildcats, who got touchdowns on three of their first seven possessions, struggled to keep pace.

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - DeAndre Washington ran for 173 yards and two touchdowns and Texas Tech overcame a breakout performance from Texas freshman tailback Chris Warren III as the Red Raiders beat the Longhorns 48-45 Thursday night for their first road win in the rivalry since 1997.

Warren set a Texas freshman record with 268 yards rushing and scored four touchdowns as Texas rallied from 10 points down in the third quarter to take the lead. Texas Tech then got fourth-quarter touchdown runs by Justin Stockton and Jakeem Grant.

Texas Tech (7-5, 4-5 Big 12) rolled up 665 total yards for its first win in Austin since 1997. The teams combined for nine touchdowns in the second half.

Washington ran for 173 yards and two touchdowns and Texas Tech overcame a breakout performance from Longhorns freshman tailback Chris Warren III. Washington has 1,455 yards this season in an offense that also has a 4,000-yard passer in quarterback Patrick Mahomes.

Washington had to do everything he could to match Warren, who set a Texas freshman record with 276 yards rushing and scored four touchdowns as Texas rallied from 10 points down in the third quarter to take the lead. Texas Tech then got fourth-quarter touchdown runs by Justin Stockton and Jakeem Grant.

Mahomes passed for 372 yards and a touchdown for Texas Tech, which hadn't beaten Texas since 2008. Mahomes set up Stockton's go-ahead touchdown with a 40-yard pass to Grant to the Texas 1.

Even with Mahomes and Washington moving the ball, Texas Tech's defense couldn't do anything to stop Warren, who scored on runs of 91, 23, 21 and 8 yards. The 91-yarder in the second quarter was the fourth longest in Texas school history.

Warren kept pounding and slicing through one of the worst rush defenses in the country to keep Texas in the game. His last touchdown gave Texas a final chance, but Texas Tech recovered an onside kick with two minutes left and picked up a key first down on a run by Mahomes before running out the clock.

HOUSTON (AP) Leonard Fournette scored five touchdowns and ran for 212 yards as No. 22 LSU used a big third quarter to pull away for a 56-27 win over Texas Tech on Tuesday night in the Texas Bowl.

Texas Tech (7-6) cut the lead to 1 early in the third quarter before the Tigers (9-3) scored 21 straight points, with two touchdowns by Fournette, to make it 42-20 entering the fourth.

Fournette had two rushing touchdowns of 2 yards, ran for TDs of 43 and 4 yards and took a screen pass 44 yards for another score.

Patrick Mahomes threw for 370 yards and four touchdowns for Texas Tech, but was under heavy pressure all night and was sacked six times and scrambled away from probably 10 more. Jakeem Grant set a Texas Tech bowl record with three receiving touchdowns.

"I knew it would be a challenge, particularly when we had to go into throwing mode every play," Texas Tech coach Kliff Kingsbury said. "It's a good front. It's a good defense."

Dakota Allen intercepted a pass by Harris early in the third quarter and Texas Tech made it 21-20 on a 31-yard touchdown reception by Reginald Davis three plays later.

Fournette was stopped for no gain on one carry on LSU's next drive and managed just two yards on the next one. But Texas Tech couldn't corral him on his next run and he broke free for a 43-yard run to give him the LSU record for rushing touchdowns in a season with 20 and push the lead to 28-20.

The Red Raiders were driving on their next possession when Rickey Jefferson intercepted a pass that was deflected on the LSU 1-yard line.

Fournette pushed LSU's lead to 35-20 on a 4-yard touchdown run after the interception. Trey Quinn had a 46-yard reception to set up that score.

TEXAS TECH RING OF HONOR

Texas Tech announced the creation of the Football Ring of Honor in June 2012. The Ring of Honor consists of an elite group of players and coaches that made outstanding contributions to Red Raider Football. Inductees have their names permanently etched on the west stadium building facing the playing surface inside Jones AT&T Stadium. Candidates for the Ring of Honor will be chosen and screened by an anonymous selection committee. Once the committee has determined a suitable candidate(s) for induction, the group will make a formal recommendation to the director of athletics.
